Nondiscrimination Policy (Title IX of Education Amendments of 1972)

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs or activities which receive federal financial assistance.

Title IX states that:

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from the participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

IDCS operates in a nondiscriminatory manner in all of the programs and services, including admissions, recruitment, scholarship opportunity, academic programs, discipline, classroom assignment, grading, guidance and counseling, student treatment and services for special needs, recreation, physical education, athletic clubs and after school clubs and activities.

The Office for Civil Rights (OCR) is responsible for enforcing Title IX. IDCS is committed to following and respectfully fulfilling the rights of all students.
